Additional capitalized terms are defined elsewhere in this Agreement.

Article 2. Formation of the Partnership

2.1 Formation. The Partnership has been formed as a Delaware limited partnership pursuant to the Act. The rights and liabilities of the Partners shall be as provided in the Act except as expressly modified herein.

2.2 Name; Principal Office; Registered Agent. The name of the Partnership is “Global Markets, LP.” The principal office shall be at such place as the General Partner determines from time to time. The registered agent in Delaware shall be as designated by the General Partner.

2.3 Purpose. The purpose of the Partnership is to engage in systematic and quantitative trading and investment activities across digital assets, equities, commodities, fixed income, foreign exchange and alternative investments, and to engage in any lawful activities related or incidental thereto.

2.4 Powers. The Partnership shall have all powers necessary, advisable or convenient to achieve its purposes, including, without limitation, borrowing, employing leverage, entering derivatives, short sales, pledging assets, and engaging service providers.

2.5 Term. The Partnership shall continue until dissolved pursuant to Article 11.

Article 3. Capital Commitments & Contributions

3.1 Commitments. Each Limited Partner agrees to contribute capital to the Partnership in cash in such amounts and at such times as may be specified in such Limited Partner's Subscription Agreement. The General Partner shall commit not less than two percent (2%) of aggregate Commitments.

3.2 Capital Calls. Capital Contributions shall be paid in immediately available funds. The General Partner may call additional Capital Contributions as needed to implement the investment program or to pay expenses, including reserves and liabilities.

3.3 Defaulting Limited Partners. If any Limited Partner fails to make a required Capital Contribution when due, the General Partner may (a) charge interest; (b) cause dilution of such Limited Partner's Interest; and/or (c) forfeit such Limited Partner's Interest, in each case as permitted by law.

3.4 Capital Accounts. Capital Accounts shall be established and maintained for each Partner in accordance with Treasury Regulation §1.704-1(b)(2)(iv).

3.5 Admission of Additional Limited Partners. The General Partner may admit additional Limited Partners on such terms as the General Partner determines, provided that such admission complies with applicable law and this Agreement.

3.6 No Withdrawal of Capital. Except as expressly provided in Article 7, no Partner shall have the right to withdraw any part of its Capital Contributions or to receive any distributions except as provided herein.

Article 4. Management and Control

4.1 Authority of the General Partner. The General Partner shall have full, exclusive and complete discretion to manage and control the business and affairs of the Partnership, including investment decisions, financing, valuation, and administration.

4.2 Standard of Care; Limitation. The General Partner shall act in good faith. The General Partner shall not be liable to the Partnership or any Partner for any act or omission except for fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct.

4.3 No Advisory Committee. No limited partner advisory committee shall be established. The General Partner may, but is not obligated to, consult with an informal advisory group without granting management authority.

4.4 Limited Partner Rights. Limited Partners shall take no part in the control or management of the Partnership and shall have rights solely as expressly set forth herein or required by law. Limited Partners shall not have authority to act for or bind the Partnership.

4.5 Service Providers. The General Partner intends to appoint an independent administrator, auditor, and legal counsel. Prime broker(s) and custodian(s) shall be appointed as the General Partner deems appropriate.

Article 5. Fees and Expenses

5.1 Management Fee. The Partnership shall pay to the General Partner (or its designee) a management fee equal to two percent (2%) per annum of NAV, calculated and paid quarterly in advance.

5.2 Performance Allocation. Subject to the Preferred Return and the High Water Mark, twenty percent (20%) of Net Profits shall be allocated to the General Partner as a Performance Allocation.

5.3 Expenses. The Partnership shall bear all reasonable and necessary expenses, including, without limitation, organizational and offering expenses, administrative expenses, brokerage commissions, financing costs, fees and expenses of auditors, attorneys and other professionals, taxes, regulatory filings and data subscriptions.

5.4 Clawback. The General Partner shall be subject to a clawback to the extent necessary to ensure that aggregate Performance Allocation distributions do not exceed the amounts otherwise provided for under this Agreement after giving effect to subsequent losses and distributions.

5.5 GP Commitment. The General Partner shall invest not less than two percent (2%) of aggregate Commitments, which may be satisfied through capital contributions by the General Partner or its principals or Affiliates.

Article 6. Allocations and Distributions

6.1 Allocations. Net Profits and Net Losses shall be allocated among the Partners in accordance with their respective Capital Accounts, subject to special allocations necessary to comply with Section 704(b) of the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations.

6.2 Distribution Waterfall. Distributions shall be made at such times as determined by the General Partner and applied as follows: (i) first, to Limited Partners until they have received distributions equal to their aggregate Capital Contributions; (ii) second, to Limited Partners until they have received the Preferred Return at six percent (6%) per annum, non-compounded; (iii) third, 100% to the General Partner by way of catch-up until the General Partner has received twenty percent (20%) of aggregate profits; and (iv) thereafter, 80% to the Limited Partners and 20% to the General Partner, pro rata.

6.3 Tax Distributions. The General Partner may cause the Partnership to make tax distributions to the Partners in respect of estimated tax liabilities arising from allocations of taxable income.

6.4 Withholding. The General Partner may withhold from any distribution amounts required to be withheld under applicable tax law and such amounts shall be treated as distributed to the applicable Partner.

6.5 In-Kind Distributions. Distributions may be made in cash or in-kind, in the discretion of the General Partner.

Article 7. Redemptions and Withdrawals

7.1 Lock■Up. Each Limited Partner shall be subject to a twelve (12) month lock■up period from the date of its initial Capital Contribution.

7.2 Redemptions. Following the lock■up, Limited Partners may request redemption effective as of the last Business Day of each calendar quarter upon not less than ninety (90) days' prior written notice, subject to the Redemption Gate.

7.3 Redemption Gate. In no event shall aggregate redemptions in any quarter exceed twenty■five percent (25%) of NAV, as determined by the General Partner.

7.4 Suspension. The General Partner may suspend redemptions during extraordinary circumstances, including, without limitation, market disruptions, trading halts, inability to value assets, or force majeure.

7.5 Fees; In■Kind. A two percent (2%) redemption fee shall apply if redeemed within twenty■four (24) months of initial Capital Contribution. The General Partner may satisfy any redemption or distribution in whole or in part in■kind.

Article 8. Transfers of Interests

8.1 Restrictions. No Limited Partner may sell, assign, pledge, encumber or otherwise transfer its Interest without the prior written consent of the General Partner, which may be granted or withheld in its sole discretion.

8.2 Permitted Transfers. Notwithstanding Section 8.1, a Limited Partner may transfer all or a portion of its Interest to an Affiliate or a family estate planning vehicle, subject to compliance with securities laws and execution of a joinder agreement.

8.3 Substituted Limited Partners. Any transferee admitted as a Substituted Limited Partner shall be bound by this Agreement upon execution and delivery of instruments satisfactory to the General Partner.

8.4 Prohibited Transfers. Any purported transfer in violation of this Article 8 shall be void ab initio and of no effect.

Article 9. Books, Records, and Reports

9.1 Books and Records. The Partnership shall maintain complete books and records in accordance with GAAP (or IFRS, if determined by the General Partner).

9.2 Reports. The Partnership shall furnish to each Limited Partner (a) monthly or quarterly NAV statements; (b) audited annual financial statements; and (c) such other reports as the General Partner may determine.

9.3 Tax Information. The Partnership shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide each Limited Partner with IRS Schedule K-1 within a reasonable period following the end of each fiscal year.

9.4 Inspection Rights. Limited Partners' inspection rights shall be limited to protect confidentiality, proprietary information and the Partnership's legitimate interests.

Article 10. Liability and Indemnification

10.1 Limited Liability. The liability of each Limited Partner shall be limited as provided under the Act and this Agreement.

10.2 Exculpation. The General Partner and its Affiliates shall not be liable to the Partnership or any Partner for any act or omission except for fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct.

10.3 Indemnification. The Partnership shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Persons from and against any and all claims, liabilities, damages and expenses arising out of or in connection with the affairs of the Partnership, except to the extent resulting from fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct.

10.4 Advancement; Insurance. The Partnership may advance expenses and purchase and maintain insurance (including E&O; and fiduciary liability) on behalf of Indemnified Persons.

Article 11. Key Person, GP Removal & Dissolution

11.1 Key Person. If the principal(s) of the General Partner primarily responsible for management cease to devote substantial professional time to the Partnership's affairs (a "Key Person Event"), the General Partner shall promptly notify the Limited Partners and suspend new investments pending LP consent to resume.

11.2 Removal for Cause. The General Partner may be removed for Cause by the affirmative vote of Limited Partners holding more than fifty percent (50%) in interest.

11.3 Removal Without Cause. The General Partner may be removed without Cause by the affirmative vote of Limited Partners holding at least seventy-five percent (75%) in interest, upon such terms as set forth by the Limited Partners including selection of a successor general partner.

11.4 Dissolution. The Partnership shall be dissolved upon (a) the removal or withdrawal of the General Partner without a permitted successor; (b) judicial dissolution; or (c) as otherwise required by law.

11.5 Liquidation. Upon dissolution, the General Partner (or a liquidator appointed by the Limited Partners) shall wind up the affairs of the Partnership and distribute assets in accordance with the priorities set forth in Section 6.2.

Article 12. Tax Matters

12.1 Partnership Representative. The General Partner is designated as the “partnership representative” for purposes of Code Section 6223 and shall have all powers afforded by law.

12.2 Allocations. Allocations of income, gain, loss, deduction and credit shall be made in accordance with Section 704(b) of the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations, including qualified income offset, minimum gain chargebacks and similar provisions as appropriate.

12.3 Withholding. The General Partner may cause the Partnership to withhold taxes with respect to any Partner as required by law and treat such withheld amounts as distributed to such Partner.

12.4 ERISA; UBTI. The Partnership may accept investments from U.S., non-U.S. and ERISA investors, and may structure investments to mitigate or manage UBTI/ECI as the General Partner deems appropriate.

Article 13. Compliance & Regulatory

13.1 Advisers Act. The General Partner expects to rely on the private fund adviser exemption under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 and applicable state law, and shall remain subject to the anti-fraud provisions thereof.

13.2 AML/KYC. The Partnership shall maintain anti-money laundering and know-your-customer procedures consistent with applicable law. Each Limited Partner agrees to provide information reasonably requested to comply with AML/KYC, OFAC and sanctions requirements.

13.3 Confidentiality; Cybersecurity. The General Partner shall maintain commercially reasonable policies regarding confidentiality and information security and may delegate operational functions to reputable service providers.

13.4 Sanctions. The Partnership will not accept investments from any Sanctioned Person and will comply with applicable sanctions programs.

Article 14. Miscellaneous

14.1 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to conflicts of law principles.

14.2 Amendments. The General Partner may amend this Agreement to cure ambiguities or for administrative matters. Any amendment materially adverse to the Limited Partners shall require the consent of Limited Partners holding more than fifty percent (50%) in interest.

14.3 Notices. All notices shall be in writing and shall be deemed given when delivered by hand, by nationally recognized overnight courier, or by certified mail to the addresses maintained in the Partnership's books and records.

14.4 Counterparts; Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, including by electronic means, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

14.5 Entire Agreement; Severability. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. If any provision is held invalid, the remainder shall be enforced to the fullest extent permitted by law.
